

I'm not robot

Continue

Grade 2 literacy worksheets pdf

The Boy Who Cried Wolf Story MapThe Boy Who Cried Wolf Story MapGive Your SecondMašima some practice building their reading understanding skills with the timeless story of the Wolf-shouting boy. Students will read this classic fable and then answer questions about setting, characters, genre, and cause and effect.2. ClassReading & Writing This is the second grade reading section. Reading is the action or skill of reading written or printed matter quietly or aloud. It is important that students start reading as soon as possible. Reading stories allows the child to improve their vocabulary background and understand the written text. Reading every year and upgrading reading skills is an important habit and skill to build on. Second-grade reading worksheets provide good practice for reading on beginners. Second-grade reading worksheets contain good understanding questions that will challenge the student at the beginning of the reading level. Our second-grade reading worksheets can be used for different levels of learning. Our second-grade reading worksheets are free to download and easy to access in PDF format. Use these worksheets to read second grade at school or at home. Click the picture to take them to our second-grade reading worksheets. Finding meals - What do animals eat? Day with Griz - A day in the life of a grizzly bear. About insects - A quick nonfiction passage to our six-legged friends. Leprechauns - Grand St. Patrick day pass or any day for that thing. Catch a thief - The title is a trick. Pun intended for... Percussion - Instruments we're banging around. Practice your time! - Tanya's fighting the piano. Statue of Liberty - Learn more about america's famous landmark. Forms on the road - Who would have thought roadways were a great way to learn about forms. Week 10 Reading Comprehension (B-10). Reading segment and questions about measuring height, weight and temperature. Inter-subject focus: mathematics. Worksheets & Reading & 2nd Grade Use these free worksheets that can be printed to practice and improve understanding of reading, vocabulary, and writing. Each worksheet includes a short fiction or nonfiction paragraph followed by some questions. These worksheets are at level 2. These leveled level 2 stories are taken from our series of leveled reading workbooks. Each subsequent level provides a greater reading challenge. More than 20 free children's stories followed by questions about understanding. Most passages have 150-200 words; questions ask students to recall what they have read. Each historical passage or fable is followed by 4 questions aimed at recalling information directly from the text. Reading comprehension worksheets focuses on specific comprehension topics such as the main idea in relation to text details, sequencing, and story elements (characters, setting, drawing). We also have short plays and drama exercises that can be a fun way to build Skills. Jake's going on his first plane trip, and he's telling everyone all about it, even his stuffed panda. Will he enjoy flying?2. Will his costume win first prize? Read the story and write answers to questions about understanding.2. They soon discover that they see things quite differently! It includes reading understanding questions, vocabulary words, and a write query. 2nd Grade Rosie thinks she's too quiet, but when her dad says it's too loud, she finds out about all the noises going on around her. Discover the heinous silence Rosie hears in this reading comprehension worksheet.2. Learn in this passage to understand reading about a bunch of backyard animals and their picnic plans.2. Class Rory can't wait to read her new favorite book from the school library, but someone's already reading it! Will the book be worth the wait? Reading understanding questions and vocabulary words is included. 2nd grade Tommy, Clara and Colin play in the snow. Each of them builds a snowman. Who's going to be the tallest? 2nd grade Uh-oh! The rooster has a problem with excessive sleep, and can not wake up all other animals! How will animals wake up in time to start their day on the farm? The story includes questions of understanding, vocabulary words and a query for writing. Second-grade grandfather lost his socks, and Alex and Emma are on the case! Can I solve the mystery of Grandpa's missing socks? Read this fun story to find out!2nd grade Emma and Alex are looking for pictures in the clouds. They see one that looks like a duck, another that looks like a man with a beard and a gray one that looks like rain.2. Class Jacob and Ruby lost their dog on a foggy night. Will he be able to find his beloved dog, Coco?2. But when Dad gets sick and can't tell her a bedtime story, will she miss story time?2nd grade Claire and Anna discover that reading can take you on unexpected adventures - even within the pages of a good book!2nd grade Hayley and Ben play a game to see who can fit more items into your coat pockets. Who's going to win? This is a clever activity of understanding reading with follow-up questions. Grade II Eve's mother has been sick since winter. She misses the sun, the birds and the flowers. Eva finds a way to give her mom flowers, even with all the snow.2. Will he have time to fit into all the great adventures he wants to go on? This reading activity includes questions of understanding and vocabulary activity. 2nd grade Annie can't sleep. Will her night-time visitors find a way to lull her into sweet dreams - without counting sheep?2nd grade While racing her brother, Nina runs right spider web. Nina thinks a monstrous spider landed on her. Are they finding a spider? And whoever wins the race?2nd Grade A girl is chasing a bat across her yard and trying to figure out where she lives. The students read the story, then completed the questions to verify understanding.2. Although they do not find gold, they find many other treasures by the beach.2. Class Max, Pops and Gram are working together to build sock puppets so they can put on a puppet show.2. Taylor tries to win a plush pony after riding the Ferris wheel at the county fair. All he has to do to win a prize is throw the ball at the bottle and knock it down. Taylor finds winning the game harder than it seems.2. Dave's mother gives him bean seeds for planting. What does he do to grow them?2nd grade Cindy helps Aunt Lee by collecting chicken eggs. She found an egg behind a bush that might be old? Is that a good egg or a bad egg? Aunt Lee has a trick that can help find the answer.2. Class Jimmy discovers treasure in his backyard! The students read the story, then finished the questions about the understanding check.2. Class Emma and her brother Alex play Hide-and-Seek. Emma's looking for Alex, but she can't find him anywhere. Where could Alex be?2. Are they on a mission? Questions of understanding, writing prompt and words of vocabulary are included. The answer key is also turned on. 5th grade Angela should be helping her family prepare for a picnic in the yard when she is distracted by her pet cat.2. Class Jen can't play because she has to clean her room, but her brother turns it into a fun game.2. Class Holi is a holiday from India. People throw colored water at each other for fun on this day. In this story, Sammy gets a phone call from his friend Raj. Raj wants to come and wear old clothes. But why 2nd grade animal neighbors Emily enjoy most of her garden harvest, but Emily is considering a spicy ending to the growing season.2. Students read the passage and check their understanding by answering the questions that follow.2. Class A few friends earn a shovel of snow for their neighbors. Read the passage and answer the understanding questions that follow.2. In this story, Katy learns that the first one isn't always the best.2. Her fearless brother Ben follows her around and creates his own collection.2. Although they look similar, these twins are very different people. Students will also learn to compare contrasting characters.2. Kate and Will's class will have lunch together. Will finds an unusual surprise in his lunchbox. Tip: It's black and white and smells like flowers.2. watching her brother Max make cookies. She wants to help, but Max says she's too little. Max soon discovers that Libby is indeed a great help in the kitchen.2. Class Find out what happens when a family of four walks into a pet store and can't agree on the perfect pet.2 And 3rd grade Jim likes to read, and Meg loves math, so they find a way to help each other.2. Grandpa doesn't catch fish down by the seashore. Detectives Emma and Alex are on the case, and they find out what happened to the fish.2nd through 4th Grades As they walk home from school, Jake teaches his little brother Ben a secret to adding big numbers.2. Class Alex and Emma are in the park making things with folded newspapers. First Emma makes two hats. Then build paper planes. He then makes paper boats.2. Class Seth pretends to be a kitten, but when he chases spindles outside, he ends up covered in mud.2. Anna & KittyStories (Fiction)Anna's dragon was caught high in a tree. It's too far for her to climb. How can her Kitty help bring the dragon down?2. Her kitten helps her choose the best items to pack.2. The only problem is: she can't find where her yo-yo, or her, went! This understanding of reading includes comprehension questions, a writing query, and vocabulary words. 2nd grade Where's Kitty? Anna searches for Kitty and finds her tangled in a ball of yarn. Seeing Kitty like that gives Anna a great idea for a Halloween costume for Kitty! Anna has to go to the spooky attic to find Kitty. Included is reading questions about understanding, quick writing and vocabulary words. 2nd grade Anna and Missing Puzzle PieceAnna thinks Kitty took her missing puzzle piece. She needs to learn a lesson about teamwork before she can complete her puzzle. Included is reading questions of understanding, written inquiry and vocabulary words. 2nd Grade Anna is trying to make forty bucks so she can buy a dollhouse. When he finds out how hard it is to make that kind of money, he has another idea.2. Class What happens when Anna is asked to bring her class pet home for a long weekend?1st through 3rd Grades Did you ever hope to see Santa Claus on Christmas Eve? In this story, Anna and Kitty have a plan to catch a glimpse of Santa before he gets to the next house! House!